

IITAA organises a successful event in appreciation of Mr Arjun Malhotra.

The alumni of IITs in Australia have an organization called IITians Association of Australia, abbreviated as IITAA. Dr Ashok Manglick is currently the president of IITAA.

Mr. Arjun Malhotra is an IITian from IIT Khargapur. He is currently chairman and head of Headstrong Inc, a USA based global business. He was in Sydney recently and IITAA organised a dinner in his honour.

Mr. Malhotra was a co-founder of HCL. During his successful entrepreneurial life he has been a part of many organizations. He is actively involved with IIT Kharagpur by personally sponsoring many activities. He takes part in IIT alumni organisations all over the world including IITAA where he is a life member and a member of the advisory board.

During the dinner Mr. Devendra Verma, member of IITAA Executive Committee and project member for the dinner event, welcomed everyone and introduced the guests. Dr Manglick welcomed and thanked Mr. Malhotra for the opportunity to meet the IITAA members and requested him to address the gathering. Mr. Malhotra stated the importance of continually working with the IITs and supporting IITs in whatever form. He shared a few jokes from his IIT days.

The dinner on 30th April 2009 was attended by IITAA members, TiE (The Indus Entrepreneurs) members and their guests. Mr. Malhotra was joined by his wife, Mrs. Kiran Malhotra. Mr. Murali Dharan, president of TiE Sydney chapter attended the dinner along with his wife, Mrs. Sudha Dharan, as a guest of IITAA. Other dinner attendees benefited by networking among themselves and Mr. Malhotra.

IITAA website is www.iitaa.org.au. Alumni of IITs are invited to join IITAA as members and promote the name of IITs in Australia and worldwide.

For further information, please contact Devendra Verma at verma_dk@yahoo.com or 0410 678 446.